From the Paris Gazette, dated Jan. 24.

Madrid, January 8.

THE laſt Letters from the Camp before Gibraltar contain the following News. The 25th of December the Enemy's Fleet came to an Anchor at the Point of Carnero. The 26th Workmen were employ'd to repair the Damage the Enemy had done to the Head of the Trenches in their laſt Sally. The Enemy made a Sally upon the Workmen, but 25 Spaniſh Grenadiers ſupported by the Guard of the Trenches, receiv'd them ſo vigorouſly, that they were oblig'd to retire; and a Dutchman was taken Priſoner. The 27th the Works were advanc'd near to the Covert-way: And the 28th a new Battery of Mortars was begun to be rais'd at the Head of the Trenches, to caſt Bombs and Stones. The 29th the Engliſh Squadron, driven by a very violent South-wind, came into the Bay, and were in ſome danger. The ſame day 5 Companies of Foot arriv'd in the Camp, where a Reinforcement of 5000 Men was daily expected. The King has given the Command of the Regiment of Aſturia to Don Pedro Ronquillo, Son of Collonel Don Franciſco Ronquillo.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated Jan. 27.

Turin, Jan. 7. The Enemy having repair'd their Batteries againſt Verue, are battering the Baſtions of St. Charles and St. Mary, to enlarge the Breaches, which cannot be mounted in the Condition they are now in. Mean time his Royal Highneſs cauſes neceſſary Preparation to be made for withſtanding an Aſſault. Laſt Week the Enemy ſprung a Mine, to throw the Covert way into the Ditch; but it had little Effect. 4 days after, they ſprung another under the Fauſſebraye of the Baſtion of St. Maty, which ruin'd part of it. The 4th of this Month, our Miners having heard thoſe employ'd by the Enemy working under the Ditch, ſprung a Fougade the following Night; and the Enemy's Miners not having been heard to work ſince, 'tis thought their Gallery was ruin'd and themſelves buried. Deſerters having reported that the Duke of Vendome had order'd his Horſe to repair to him, and all the Grenadiers of the Regiments under his Command to draw together; His Royal Highneſs ſent for 2 Battallions of our Garriſon to come to him at Creſcentino, that he might be in the better Condition to oppoſe any Deſign the Enemy might have form'd. But the Duke of Vendome has only made a Detachment, to convoy ſome Boats laden with Ammunition and Proviſions, which he had caus'd to be brought from Caſal and lended at Gabiano. Since the Sally made by the Garriſon of Verue the 26th of laſt Month, the Duke of Vendome has caus'd the Troops that mount the Trenches to be doubled, and a certain Number of them to be poſted continually near the Batteries, to prevent a ſecond ſurprize: We hear likewiſe, that ſince the Arrival of our 2 Battallions at Creſcentino, he has augmented the Number of his Guards with 10 Men out of each Brigade.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Jan. 27.

From the Duke of Vendome's Camp before Verue, Jan. 10. Our Time has been taken up from the 26th of laſt Month till now, in repairing the Damage which we ſuffer'd in the Sally made by the Beſieged that day. Yet 'tis impoſſible for us to make 18 Pieces of Cannon and 3 Mortars that were nail'd then, ſerve again; and therefore others are to be brought from the Milaneze, and are expected here the 15th; if they arrive by that time, they will be plac'd on the Batteries and begin to fire the 18th. Mean while we are tir'd with the Length of the Siege, and our Loſs grows greater daily, as well by the Fire from the Cannon and ſmall Arms of the Beſieged, as by the hard Fatigue and exceſſive Cold we are oblig'd to endure.

The Advices from Milan and Genoa that came by this Mail, agree, that Abundance of Snow has fallen in the Country all about Verue, which added to the piercing Cold, renders the Siege of that Place extreamly tireſome and pernicious to the Duke of Vendome's Army.

From the Paris Letter, dated Jan. 24.

Paris, Jan. 24. A Courier who ſet out from the Camp before Verue the 10th, and arriv'd at Court the 20th, has brought Advice, that the Duke of Vendome deſign'd to make a general Aſſault the 20th of this Month; while the Count D'Eſtain (to divert the Arms of the Duke of Savoy,) ſhould march with all the Horſe towards Turin, and endeavour to make himſelf Maſter of the Fort call'd the Capuchins, ſituate on an Eminence over againſt Turin on the other ſide of the Po. The 9th 7 Pieces of Cannon were brought to the Camp, and 20 more were expected to arrive the 11th. The 2d Wall of Verue was almoſt wholly ruin'd, and the 3d much damag'd. The Beſieged fir'd only with 6 Pieces of Cannon from the Donjon, and that but ſparingly. And it was hop'd our Miners would blow up the Baſtions on the Right and that on the Left. At preſent it may be ſaid the Siege is carried on more under-ground than above; Yet 'tis believ'd the Place will ſhortly be ours. 'Tis ſuppos'd the D. of Vendome will come to Court ſoon after, becauſe an Apartment is fitting up for him at Verſailles. Monſieur de Lapara, the fam'd Ingenier, ſet out Poſt from hence yeſterday, to go to the Camp before Gibraltar. The King has reſolv'd to have at Sea this Summer 70 Ships of the Line of Battle: Of which 60 are to be the Fleet; And the reſt are to cruiſe where it ſhall be thought proper.

From the Harl. & Amſt. Courants, dated Jan. 27.

Frankfort, Jan. 21. They write from the Hondſrug, that the Troops quarter'd there and on the Moſelle, have Orders to hold themſelves in a Readineſs to march, and that ſeveral hundred Waggons with 8 Horſes to each, are order'd to be got ready; but whether for an Expedition againſt the Enemy, or to oppoſe the Motions of their Forces which are grown pretty numerous on the Moſelle, is yet uncertain.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated Jan. 27.

Amſterdam, Jan. 27. They write from Berlin, that the King of Pruſſia's Council have nominated the Troops that are to march to Italy in order to ſuccour the Duke of Savoy, making in Number 8000 Men, purſuant to the Agreement with the Duke of Marlborough, viz. Foot; 2 Batalians of Prince Philip William, 2 of Prince Chriſtian Louis, 2 of the Prince of Anhalt Deſſau, and 2 of Canitz. Horſe; the Regiment of Bareith, that of Loſdan commanded at preſent by Collonel Portail, and that of Dragoons of Souſvelt. This Body of Men, all Veterans, will be commanded by the Prince of Anhalt Deſſau, who is to have under him Monſieur de Cornau for Lieutenant General, Monſieur van Stul for Brigadier

General

General of Foot, and Monſieur de Venne for Brigadier General of Horſe, His Pruſſian Majeſty will beſides ſend to the Moſelle, or elſewhere, as ſhall be judg'd moſt convenient, the following Troops over and above the 5000 Men that are in the Service of England and Holland: viz. Foot; 2 Batalions of the Prince Royal, 2 of the Marquiſs d' Albrecht, 2 of Lottum, 1 of Borſtel, and 3 other Batalions of the 5 that are coming from Pruſſia. Horſe; The Regiment of Prince Philip William, that of Wartenſleben, that of Dragoons of Witgenſtein, and that of Craſſaw; In caſe the new Regiment of Erfling be compleated, it will be added to the reſt, 'tis not known yet who will command this Body. Brigadier Canitz, Baron Erfling, Collonel Beulen, and the Collonel of the King's Guards, are made Majors General. His Majeſty has made the Prince of Saxe Nauemburg, and the Count of Hanau Knights of the Black Eagle, a new Order inſtituted by himſelf. The 11th of this Month General Thungen arriv'd at Berlin, and the 12th had Audience of the King: He will be honour'd with the ſame Knighthood.

From the Amſterdam Courant dated Jan. 27.

Hamburg, Jan. 23. We have Advice, that at Berlin the Hereditary Prince of Heſſe Caſſel, the Markgrave of Anſpach, the governing Duke of Saxe Zeyts, and the Imperial Field Marſhal General Thungen, have been made Knights of the King of Pruſſia's Order of the Black Eagle.

From the Amſterdam, Leiden & Bruſſels Gazettes.

Paris, Jan. 24. The Counteſs D'Aunoy, who wrote the Lady's Travels into Spain, and other Pieces that have been well receiv'd by the Publick, died ſome Days ago. Father Meneſtrier, a Jeſuite, Author of ſeveral Books, died the 21ſt of this Month. The Marquiſs de Valſeme (Father of the Major General of that Name, who was taken Priſoner in the Battle of Bleinhim, and is now in England,) is alſo dead; in the 84th Year of his Age. 'Tis talk'd a Declaration will ſpeedily be publiſh'd, to oblige all Perſons to carry their Plate into the Mint to be coin'd into Money, The Duke of Vendome ſent to Court in the Month of November, an Account of the Recruits wanting to fill up the Regiments under his Command; but having ſince loſt a great Number of Men before Verue, and apprenending he cannot but loſe a great many more ſtill, he has deſir'd an Addition of a third part of the Number he firſt ſent for.

Newly publiſh'd, The Second Edition of

A True and Succinct Account of the Venereal Diſeaſe; Shewing its Nature, Cauſes, various ways of Infecting, the eaſineſs of its Cure, and the Reaſons why ſo many daily miſs of Cure; with ſome Directions whereby the Patients themſelves may know when, and when not, they are in ſafe and skillful Hands for Cure. Publiſhed for the Uſe of all whom it may in any wiſe concern, but more eſpecially for thoſe that now have, or at any time may have the Misfortune of that Diſtemper. In order to prevent their being ruin'd by ignorant Pretenders, whoſe fraudulent Practices are plainly diſcover'd, their daily Abuſes detected, their fair Promiſes proved fallacious, and their Methods and Medicines pernicious. The whole interſpers'd with pertinent Obſervations. By John Marten Chirurgeon in Bridgewater Square near Alderſgate-ſtreet, a Golden Head over the Door. To which is added, a few words concerning the Cure of old Gleets, which are generally procur'd by ill Management, and by moſt deem'd incurable. Printed for and ſold by S. Crouch at the corner of Pope's-Head-Alley in Cornhill, J. Knapton at the Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard, and P. Varrenne at Seneca's Head near Somerſet-Houſe in the Strand, Bookſellers. Price 1 s.

☞ The Author of this Book continually curing numbers of Venereal People under moſt deplorable Circumſtances, (even when diſmiſs'd by others as incurable, and that after the fatigue of divers Salivations, as well as all other the common methods) gives this Notice for the ſake of others labouring under the like Misfortunes, that even then (tho' ſeemingly irrecoverable, and paſt all hopes) they may be aſſur'd of a true Cure, by an eaſie method, and be retriev'd in a ſhort time, from the inevitable ruine, which the Diſtemper (either of it ſelf, or chrag'd with bad management) is haſtening them to; tho' it be daily obſerv'd, that ill adminiſtrations, in Venereal caſes, produce much worſe Effects than the Diſtemper, if let alone, would do of it ſelf. Claps of all degrees, even as bad as can be, by abuſe or delay, are ſafely and ſuddenly Cured, Stalding of Urine to the laſt Extremity remov'd within the compaſs of a day, and when attended with a Cordee, &c. in ſeldom more than two, but if come in time thoſe torturing Accidents prevented. Stubborn continued Gleets or Weeping (whether Venereal or by Weekneſs) are cured by a particular method, divers from 3 to 10 and 15 Years and one of 35 Years ſtanding lately cured, after all Attempts by others to no purpoſe.

This day is publiſh'd,
